""Both silhouettes are perfect for training or lifestyle wear. The puma shoes for men sports is a classic running silhouette that has a sleek blue base and a Puma sidestripe printed in salmon. The upper sits atop a Puma Nitro midsole and Puma Grip outsole. The Puma Voyage Nitro has more of a complex upper, as it has tactical elements and a hightop silhouette. This hybrid sneaker-boot has a two-tone exterior, with the bottom being dark blue and the collar being aqua.

This shoe puma shoes for women also has the salmon-toned Puma sidestripe, making for the perfect complimentary shade that plays off the bright coral Helly Hansen "HH." These shoes will be released alongside a winterized running apparel collectuon that can be seen in the campaign visuals.

The sneaker reebok instapump fury black comes in the iconic "Citron" colorway, with the Reebok Pump bladder seen in Citron with red accenting throughout. A GORE-TEX upper is utilized on the base of the sneaker, which rides up into an ankle bootie collar. The Reebok Vector is seen on the lateral side in red, with the Instapump pump and GORE-TEX branding also featured.

We now spotted a more subtle reebok nano x shoes mens collaboration in terms of colors. nano universe, atmos and Reebok collaborated on this multi-textured, winter-ready design. Pony hair appears throughout the midfoot and on the entire toe box, while the toe cap area is finished in patent leather.""
